Set Assessment District for Parking Lots

(Reprinted in part from the Monday, Feb. 27, issue of the HERALD.)
(Illustrated)
Petitions which would call for the creation of a new parking assessment district for downtown Torrance are ready for circulation among the 150 property owners of the area, it has been announced by Dean Sears, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce parking committee.

Signing of the petition by a majority of the property owners will authorize a bond issue for $200,000 with which to buy and improve lots in the downtown area for off-street parking.

Bugs to be Killed

(Illustrated)
The driver of an auto who screamed to police to kill him while he lay pinned, his legs crushed, in his wrecked auto here last week is reported in serious but not critical condition at Harbor General Hospital.

"Shoot me! For God's sake, kill me! I can't stand the pain," the 22-year-old, aircraft worker, Ory Sylvester Gau Jr., cried to police during the hour he was trapped in his demolished car.

The victim, who lives at 4737 Towers St., was imprisoned in his car after it slammed broadside into a power pole at 10th St. and Hawthorne Ave. Thursday night. The auto was wrapped around the pole, its engine thrown clear of the wreckage by the terrific impact.

YMCA Nearing Goal

Total funds raised in the YMCA's current support campaign last week came within $1425 of the groups $17,000 goal according to Sam Levy, general chairman.

Contribution totals by divisions are as follows: Industrial, $9210; Professional, $2422; Commercial, $2843; Field, $1000.

Baby Dies Suddenly

A 2 1/2-month-old baby, Cheryl Ann Breckner, of 709 Columbia Ct., died suddenly early Thursday morning here, according to police reports.

Police, a fire department resuscitator crew and ambulance attendants answered a frantic call at about 7 a.m. Thursday from the baby's mother, Lois Breckner. She told authorities she had found the baby under a blanket in her bed.

Kidnap Suspect

Raymond Romberg, 22, of 2011 Anza Ave., was arrested here Wednesday on a San Bernardino warrant charging him with kidnapping, assault with a deadly weapon and attempted rape. Detective Captain Benie Ashton said Friday.

Ashton said Romberg was returned to San Bernardino for prosecution.

Civitan Club Honored

(Illustrated)
Torrance Civitan Club received an award of honor from the California-Arizona district of Civitan International Thursday night at the Palmis as a result of its success in the recent "operation build-up" membership campaign of the International. The award, a club banner, was presented by Lieut. Governor John Blainey, of San Pedro, to Club President Frank E. Bolover and First Vice President Tom Ward, chairman of the successful committee which added six new members to the Torrance club.

Centennial Bested

(Illustrated)
Basketball five-hour games for the Torrance Tartars Friday afternoon at the locals walloped power-house Centennial, 82-72, to take their fourth straight Bay League game. Fittingly enough, it was the final game of the season for the two squads.

Centennial has held a two-year hex over the Tartars in all sports, winning handily in past Varsity contests. Torrance previously had beaten an Apache team only once, in a Bay League baseball game last year.
